

2025 FESL Volleyball Summer Camp

St. James - St. Raymond - Mary Seat of Wisdom – St. Paul of the Cross

FESL Volleyball camp introduces and emphasizes correct technique in all aspects of the game, providing athletes with individual attention in a group setting. All camps are open to students from any school.

All Skills Camps

Practice and learn each skill – serving, serve-receive, defense, setting, and hitting – with court strategy and game situations. Play skill-based games every day with a tournament and awards on the last day.

Players still in school on June 9th or 10th can join our All Skills mini-camp at St. James from June 11th to 13th.

Limited to 32 players | 2 full sized courts | 1:8 Coach to Player ratio

Focused Training Camps

In-depth, specialized training for specific skills: hitting, serving, serve-receive and defense. Training focuses on improving technique, correcting form, and extra reps.

Limited to 24 players | 2 full sized courts | 1:6 Coach to Player ratio

Coaching Staff

All camps will be directed and coached by Joanie Fesl. Our coaches this summer will include some of the following former collegiate players:

- Eryk Krzyzak – Glenbrook South High School Boys & Girls Assistant Varsity coach
- Jack Nickle – Rolling Meadows High School Girls Varsity Coach
- Jake Bracer – current semi-pro volleyball player
- Katie Nickle – former Rolling Meadows High School Girls Varsity Coach
- Kevin O’Donnell – Conant High School Boys coach & Rolling Meadows High School Girls coach
- Mike Aldworth – former coach at Naperville North High School & Prospect High School
